

Advanced Provider Emergency Medicine

Goshen Hospital
Goshen, Indiana

About Vituity

As an Advanced Provider at Vituity, you play a vital role in delivering exceptional patient care in the Emergency Department. You are a valued member of a collaborative, high-performing care team, making a meaningful impact on the lives of the patients and communities we serve.

At Vituity, we've built an environment where passion thrives and success is driven by shared purpose. Our "Culture of Brilliance" emphasizes teamwork over individual achievement—bringing together diverse strengths, experiences, and perspectives to create better outcomes.

We are 100% physician-owned and led, with over 50 years of proven stability, innovation, and growth. Our model supports collaboration, flexibility, and well-being, ensuring you have the resources and support needed to succeed both professionally and personally.

At Vituity, your contributions are recognized, your voice matters, your career grows, and your impact endures.

Opportunity

- Seeking Emergency Medicine physician assistants and nurse practitioners
- Current national certification, DEA, and BLS are required
- ACLS and PALS are preferred
- Current Indiana state license is a plus

Benefits

- Medical, dental, vision, HSA/FSA, life, and AD&D benefits
- Highly competitive, tax-advantaged 401(k) plan
- Annual profit distribution bonus
- Student loan refinancing discounts

The Practice

- 100-bed hospital with 22-bed Emergency Department
- Annual volume of 33,000
- Meditech Expanse EMR/charting system
- Rated 4 Stars in CMS Quality Measures
- Average 1.8-2 patients per hour with a 20% admission rate
- Cardiology, General/Vascular Surgery, OB/GYN, Ortho, GI, with Neuro, ID, ENT, Pulmonology and Ophthalmology on consult
- Strong IR program with a hybrid room supporting complex cases
- Regional cancer center offering medical, surgical, gynecologic oncology, and radiation services

Why Indiana...

Goshen, Indiana, affectionately known as "The Maple City," offers a blend of cultural heritage, recreational activities, and small-town charm, making it a wonderful place to live and work.

Residents and visitors enjoy local favorites like Fidler Pond Park and Ox Bow Park, perfect for walking, fishing, and relaxing in nature. Downtown Goshen is a vibrant hub, hosting monthly First Fridays with live music, food, and local art that bring the community together. The city experiences four distinct seasons, with warm summers averaging highs around 80°F and snowy winters with highs near 32°F. Located in northern Indiana, Goshen is about 25 miles from South Bend, 120 miles from Chicago, and 150 miles from Indianapolis. Indiana proudly features major league teams like the Indianapolis Colts (NFL) and Indiana Pacers (NBA), with NHL excitement nearby from the Chicago Blackhawks. Goshen's character and quality of life make it truly unique.

Interested?

Explore Vituity
Opportunities

Let's Connect.

Alyssa Jackson Medical Recruiter

(510) 506-7322 | Alyssa.Jackson2@vituity.com