D22 Describe other military/veteran transfer credit policies unique to your institution:

In addition to CLEP exam credit, Butler recognizes the value of military training and coursework. By evaluating military transcripts and other documentation, Butler ensures that veterans and active-duty personnel can receive academic credit for their service, helping to shorten the path to a degree and facilitating a smoother transition to civilian careers. Butler utilizes the American Council on Education (ACE) Military Guide in the review of military transcripts for academic credit.
